AND ACT SHY.Democratic Convention Short Of Candidates.BURLESQUE ON A CONTEST
CAUSES LAUGHTER.Any Man In the State Could Get a Place On the Ticket By Saying the Word and Everybody Yelled For Their Enemies—Senator Vilas
Speaks Words of Clammy Cheer—
The Performance in Detail.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 6.—This has been a day of agony for the democrats. Nobody knew just what to do. The delegates got together hoping that something would interfere to save them from the necessity of nominating the old ticket. They cheered one another by saying that Bragg was very likely to be the man, and painted glowing pictures of the struggle the general was making. Bragg struggling! Any democrat in the state, not absolutely under indictment, could have the nomination for the asking and everybody knew it. The attempt to manufacture interest in a contest had fallen of its own weight before Bragg heard of it; and he promptly added a finishing blow by saying he wouldn't be a candidate under any circumstances—couldn't be hired to be one.

Hunner and Winans were the only men left. Both men were freely discussed, the friends of each dwelling lovingly on the good qualities of the other. Hunner's henchmen boosted Winans and Winans' devotees yelled for Hunner after the fashion of a county-fair donkey race, where the one who gets in last wins the carrots. The convention assembled in the State theatre at noon, and Senator Vilas was chosen chairman. His speech was flowery and full of laudation for the state and national administrations. At 1 o'clock an adjournment was ordered until 4 p. m. to give the platform committee time to prepare its report.

At 5 o'clock it was announced that Peck had become tired of the dilly-dallying and absolutely refused to run. The slate-making then took a fresh start with Hunner as a favorite.

Nominate Gen. Becker.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 6.—The democrats of Minnesota in state convention last evening nominated Gen. George L. Becker for governor. The platform reaffirms democratic doctrines; denounces the protective tariff; indorses President Cleveland's administration; favors free coinage of silver whenever it can be accomplished consistently with the maintenance of a sound and stable currency; favors the popular election of United States senators; demands rigid economy in public affairs; denounces the American Protective association; commends the democratic tariff bill; favors taxation of railway lands, and believes in arbitration.

Gov. Waite Renominated.
PUEBLO, Colo., Sept. 6.—Gov. Waite put his foes to flight in the Populist state convention yesterday. He was renominated on the first ballot, receiving all but half a dozen votes, which were given to Congressman Pence. The nomination was later made unanimous. The full ticket is as follows: Governor, Davis H. Waite; lieutenant-governor, S. W. Harmon; auditor, S. F. Lincoln; treasurer, Casero Basela.

New Hampshire Republicans.
CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 6.—The republican state convention met here yesterday, with 700 of the 749 delegates present. Charles A. Busiel was nominated for governor. The platform denounced the democratic administration, its Hawaiian and financial policy, and held it responsible for the business depression. The principles of the Minneapolis convention were reaffirmed.

South Dakota Democrats Meet.
SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Sept. 6.—The democratic state convention assembled with every county represented. Temporary organization was affected by appointing W. H. Wilson of Sioux Falls chairman. The usual committees appointed and recess taken until 11 o'clock to-night.

DANGER FROM FIRE NOT YET OVER
Northeastern Minnesota People in a Panic—Horrible Find at Sandstone.

BARNUM, Minn., Sept. 6.—Just a puff of wind and a dozen more towns in northeastern Minnesota will be blotted out as was Hinckley. Forest fires still blaze sullenly through all the pine lands. The smoke of them makes the sky sooty gray; they press closely upon the villages along the railroads. Since Sunday there has been a providential calm, but if wind comes upon this smitten country before rain the result will be terrible.

The infernal cyclone of Saturday took in its region Brown's Hill, in Kanabec county, and spread out fan-like as far as Sandstone, in Pine county, in the north; as far as Grantsburg, over in Wisconsin; in the south it made a rough triangle with its base and south line of fifty miles, its sides running northeast twenty-five miles and southwest twenty-five miles. That was the big fire that has littered Hinckley and Pokegama, Mission Creek and Sandstone with uncounted hundreds of black corpses. But there are smaller fires, too many of them to count, all through Kanabec, Mille Lacs, Aitkin, Pine, Itasca, St. Louis, Carlton, and Crow Wing counties in the state of Minnesota. Some of these have done nothing more than to make charcoal of a few thousand acres of forest; some of them have brought horrible death to settlers and their families. Here and there is a village where it is not possible to guess at the extent of this awful work. The full loss from these fires will never be known within scores of lives and millions of dollars.

As one goes north from Hinckley along the Duluth road the appearances of devastation lessen. At Hinckley, coffins, corpses, acres of ashy desert filled with the ghosts of forests; at Sandstone Junction and Miller, six and eight miles northward, still desolation everywhere and death by fire a thing to be nonchalantly gossiped over. Yesterday morning at Sandstone they took out of an old dry well pieces of nineteen men and women. The well was a square hole, twelve feet across, twenty feet deep. There was no water in it, and a floor had been built ten feet down for a root cellar. Into this place the refugees hurried; then the treacherous walls of wood caved in, blazing upon them, and the rain of fire descended from the clouds. The nineteen bodies were found in one mass. This is what the fire did at Sandstone.

FIRES STILL BURNING.
Many More Small Towns in Great Danger.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Sept. 6.—Along the line of the Omaha railway south of here the fires are still burning and it only needs a strong wind to fan the flames until towns along the line become food for the fire. At Superior Junction the fires were reported very bad, but at last accounts the town was still safe. At Poplar three residences, a school house, railway ties, cedar posts and millions of feet of timber were burned. A small settlement about twenty miles north of Iron River burned to the ground last night, but the residents escaped.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 6.—Reports from the north are to the effect that Carlton and Kerrick are in danger. The fires now surround those places and are raging furiously. The men of Kerrick had sent the women and children to West Superior and Duluth for safety and remained behind to fight the fires.

ISHPEMING, Mich., Sept. 6.—This city is again enveloped in smoke, the fires in forests adjoining having started afresh. Damage here is confined to crops and timber. Hundreds of men are still fighting flames throughout the Upper Peninsula.

MANISTIQUE, Mich., Sept. 6.—Forest fires are raging fiercely in this vicinity. Last night the fire crossed the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Ste. Marie railway about two miles east, obstructing the passage of the west bound train for some time. The villages of South Manistique and Thompson are in considerable danger and conditions are favorable for disastrous fires throughout the county of Schoolcraft.

MILACA, Minn., Sept. 6.—The fires are still burning and great excitement prevails. Fifty families are entirely destitute.

LONG LAKE RAPIDS, Rainy River, Ont., Sept. 6.—The country around here, adjoining Minnesota, is on fire. Crops, buildings and cattle have been burned. The Gainsby family, living six miles below here, has been almost wiped out. Miss Clara Gainsby and her five brothers perished in the flames. A number of people are missing.

Death List May Not Be So Large.

PINE CITY, Minn., Sept. 6.—The corrected figures are of a character calculated to lower rather than raise the total number of dead. There has been an increase over previous estimates at Hinckley, but the prospect of any considerable number remaining still in the woods is decreasing. There are 233 buried in Hinckley grave yard, and perhaps a dozen more buried at other points in the vicinity, increasing the total here to about 250, but the additional number here may be safely taken away from the liberal estimate allowed for those yet unfound, leaving the total between 375 and 400, where it was put yesterday morning.

Ashtand in Danger.

ASHTAND, Wis., Sept. 6.—Forest fires were burning dangerously near to this city all day yesterday. There was just enough wind to keep them agitated. The whole town is nervous and excited. With every gust have come dense volumes of stifling smoke, blinding and choking every one. The pine forest skirt the town on the south and west, and these are alive with slow-burning fires. Should the gentle southwestern wind break loose and become a storm it is doubtful if anything save the hand of Providence could save this city.

Horses and Cattle Suffering.

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 6.—There are over 1,000 destitute refugees from Hinckley and Sandstone now in Duluth. Some are returning to their burned homes, leaving wives and families in charge of the relief society or sending them to friends and relatives. One of the sad features in the suffering is the large number of cows, horses, sheep and hogs, as well as fowls, that miraculously escaped the fires and are now suffering and slowly dying from hunger. The humane societies at Duluth will at once take this part of relief work in charge.

The two-minute trotter is coming closer and closer.

ROBBERS DO WELL
AT RALEIGH, N. C.STATE TREASURER WORTH
HAS $15,500 STOLEN.

Five Hundred Dollars Was In Cash and $15,000 In Bonds Was the Booty that Was Secured and Police Are At Sea—Other Criminal News.

RALEIGH, N. C., September 6.—[Special]—State Treasurer Worth was robbed last night of five hundred dollars in cash and fifteen thousand dollars in bonds and the police are at sea.

Rob and Torture an Old Man.
BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 6.—Saffron Haas, a bachelor cobbler 60 years old, living in this city, had $5,000 concealed in his shop, which was broken into by burglars last night. The thieves beat Haas almost to death, but did not succeed in getting the money, as the police, hearing his cries for aid, came in time to frighten them away. Haas' skull is fractured in half a dozen places and he will probably die.

Policeman Shot Dead by Burglars.
CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 6.—Police Sergeant Nicholas Sheehan was murdered this morning at daylight by two burglars whom the officer was pursuing. The burglars opened fire on the sergeant and he fell to the sidewalk dead with a bullet in his breast. Later it was found they had made an unsuccessful attempt to blow open the safe in the office of the Ohio Provision company.

Threats of Lynching at Parsons.
PARSONS, Kan., Sept. 6.—Deputy Sheriff Baker, while attempting to arrest a desperate character by the name of White, was seriously shot and his injuries are thought to be fatal. White was arrested and held for trial next Monday. Lynching was freely talked of, and for fear of violence White was taken to the county jail at Oswego, twelve miles south of here.

Ex-Cashier Overton Said to Be Alive.
SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Sept. 6.—A great sensation has been created at Hillsboro, south of here, by the news that ex-Cashier Overton of the Citizen's bank has been seen recently alive and well. A man supposed to be Overton, who died in a hospital, was buried shortly after the failure. The bank's victims now claim that this was a hoax.

Five Years for a Banker.
SANTA FE, N. M., Sept. 6.—In territorial Supreme court yesterday Stephen M. Folsom, late president of the Albuquerque National, was adjudged guilty of making false statements, and the decision of the trial court, sentencing him to five years in the penitentiary, was affirmed.

Plot to Wreck a Pay Car.
BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Sept. 6.—John L. McGraw and James King are under arrest charged with conspiring to rob the Norfolk & Western pay car, which is due at Bluefield to-day. The car carries $20,000 or $30,000. The robbers were to have used dynamite.

Offers a Reward for the Lynchers.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 6.—Gov. Turney has formally offered a reward of $5,000 for the apprehension of the persons engaged in the lynching of the six negro barn burners near Millington last Friday.

Japanese Leaving China.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 6.—The Japanese residents here, numbering 700, are selling out their business preparatory to as rapid a departure as possible, owing to the surrender by the United States of two Japanese said to be spies to the Tantai outside the settlement limits. It is said these Japanese were executed immediately, whereas it was agreed they should receive a fair trial.

Cholera Still Spreading.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 6.—Two cases of cholera were reported here yesterday and at Burgerven there was one death from that disease.

Berlin, Sept. 6.—Between Aug. 27 and Sept. 3 there were fifty-three cases of cholera and twenty-one deaths throughout the German empire.

College President Missing.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 6.—Rev. J. J. Kennedy, president of Amity college, College Springs, has been mysteriously missing for a week. He came to Omaha to be gone twenty-four hours and has not been seen since. No reason can be given for his disappearance.

Prohibition Finally Downs Him.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Sept. 6.—Stormy Jordan, the notorious saloon man, once immensely wealthy, has spent all his money fighting Iowa's prohibition law. His place was closed yesterday because he could not pay the license.

Death of Ex-Gov. Stoneman.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 6.—Gen. George Stoneman, ex-governor of California, died in this city yesterday at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Benjamin H. Williams.

Congressman Wilson Off for Europe.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Congressman W. L. Wilson, the framer of the Wilson tariff bill, sailed for Europe yesterday on board the steamer Paria. He goes abroad solely for rest and recuperation.

JACKSON TO FIGHT
BUT FEARS POLICEWILLING TO MEET CORBETT
AT SIOUX CITY.

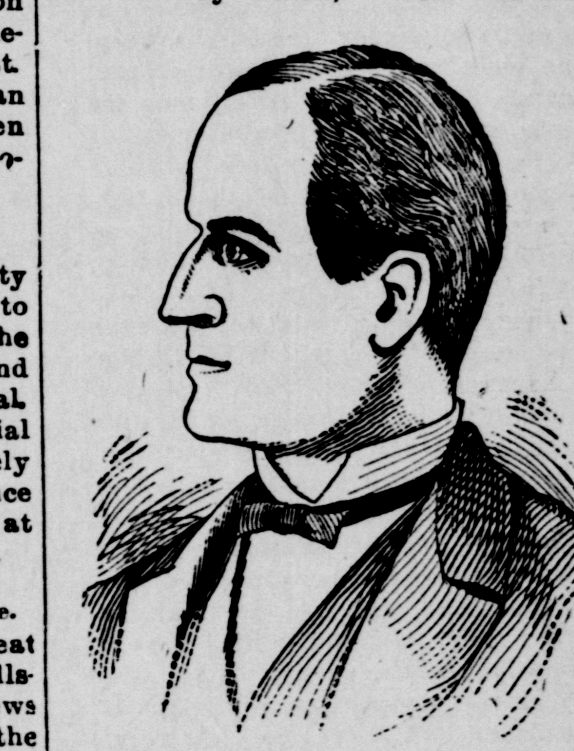

All He Wants, He Says, Is to be Guaranteed Protection From the Minions Of the Law—The Dempsey McCarthy Battle Ends In a Draw.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—[Special]—Peter Jackson says he will fight Corbett at Sioux City if he is guaranteed protection from arrest.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 6.—Jack Dempsey and Billy McCarthy of Australia fought a drawn battle last night in the arena of the Auditorium Athletic club before a large audience. The contest was confined to twenty rounds. John Duffy acted as referee. Dempsey weighed 146 pounds, McCarthy weighing 154 pounds, the limit. Dempsey was thought to have the best of it, but was unable to knock out his opponent.

HOW DEBS' TRIAL PROGRESSES.
Questions Involved In Contempt Case—Famous "Buy a Gun" Message.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—The hearing of the contempt case against President Debs and other officers of the American Railway Union, which was dis-

PRESIDENT EUGENE V. DEBS, continued on July 25, was taken up by Judge Woods of the United States Circuit court yesterday morning.

Special Counsel Edwin Walker, for the government, announced a filing of a supplemental bill of information which was read by ex-District Attorney Milchrist. Attorney Gregory, for the defense moved for a trial by jury, which was temporarily overruled by Judge Woods.

After the reading of the answer of the defendants to the supplemental bill the taking of testimony was begun. E. A. Mulford, Jr., manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, was the first witness. Mr. Mulford went on to say, after having been sworn, that he had in his possession a number of telegrams sent to or by Debs and other officers of the American Railway Union, but he refused to produce them unless the court should issue a formal order for him to do so. This was done by Judge Woods and Mr. Mulford placed 9,000 telegrams in two stacks on the judge's desk. Mr. Milchrist asked Mr. Mulford to read a telegram sent to Debs by one Phelan, of Cincinnati. Mr. Gregory objected to the introduction of any evidence tending to contradict the answer filed by the respondents to the information. Mr. Erwin, Mr. Geeting and Mr. Gregory offered various objections to every phase of the evidence. All these objections were overruled.

Mr. Mulford went on to reply to Mr. Milchrist's questions, saying that three of the officers of the American Railway Union held half-rate tickets for the telegraph tolls. Bills for the telegrams sent were rendered to the American Railway Union daily and paid generally in cash, but sometimes by checks. The telegrams sent by the American Railway Union between May 26 and July 18 would amount, at the regular commercial rates, to about $6,000. President Debs held one of the half-rate tickets, but witness did not know who holds the others.

Then the famous "Save your money and buy a gun" telegram came up and caused a small explosion. Mr. Mulford, in response to Mr. Milchrist's request to produce a telegram sent by Debs to J. H. Calderhead on July 2, read the message, but after the phrase "buy a gun," with which the telegram, as set out by the government's information, ended, there were the words: "Tell Effie I am safe and well. Love to all."

About 12 o'clock Mr. Debs entered the court room and took a seat at the end of the counsel's table. He was pale and thin and looked to be far from well. Mr. Mulford and Mr. Milchrist went wearing through the long list of telegrams, most of which have been already published. The lawyers for the defense held printed copies of the government's information and followed carefully the reading of the telegrams, making occasional comments on them or filing objections to the introduction of such evidence.

Arabs Reported In Revolt.

ADEN, Sept. 6.—Rumors have reached here of a revolt of the Arab tribes in the Yemen district. The Arabs are reported to have blown up several official buildings.

TOWN DROPPED INTO A MINE.

Fatalities Cannot Be Estimated—Miners Shut In.

LOFTY, Pa., Sept. 6.—The little mining town of Scotch Valley, in Lackawanna county, was swallowed up last night in one of the most complete mine cave-ins ever known in this region. The scene of disaster is on the slope of Mount Lookout, the score of houses comprising the hamlet being at the mouth of the shaft of the Mount Lookout colliery. The dozen houses on either side of the principal street of the hamlet are completely swallowed up in the gaping hole and nothing can be seen of the other buildings of the town but the roof, gables, and chimneys. It is impossible at this time to state accurately the number of fatalities. Rescuing parties are now exerting every means to release the occupants of the engulfed dwellings.

The cave-in was caused by the giving way of timber supports in the workings of the Mount Lookout colliery, which has not been in operation for about two years. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the inhabitants of the hamlet were startled by rumbling and reports like falling rock in the caverns of the abandoned mine many hundreds of feet below them. The terror stricken people soon felt the ground tremble and sway like an earthquake beneath them. Report was followed by report, and accompanied by other tremors, and the village sank out of sight in the gaping cavity.

Meanwhile some fifty miners were imprisoned in the colliery. They had been at work in another portion of the mine and all means of exit was completely wiped out. James Perrin, one of the oldest of the miners, got the men together and started to lead them up through a tunnel which had been used as an air shaft, but which leads to the surface through a series of steep slopes. A rescuing party on the surface made an attempt to cut a passage through debris which blocked the main entrance. Failing in this some of the more daring rescuers came into this passage and came to where the imprisoned miners were struggling upward. The men were carried to the surface, where a great crowd of excited, panic-stricken people were awaiting them. Up to 9 o'clock at night all the persons who could be found have been taken from the ruins, although the full roll of those to be accounted for can not be prepared as yet.

KIND WORDS TO HAWAII.

Cleveland's Letter of Recognition Is Received by President Dole.

HONOLULU, Aug. 28.—Minister Willis called on President Dole yesterday and presented the following letter from Mr. Cleveland:

"Grove Cleveland, President of the United States, to His Excellency, Sanford B. Dole, president of Hawaii: Great and Good Friend: I have received your letter of the 7th ult., by which you announce the establishment and proclamation of the republic of Hawaii on the 4th day of July, 1894, your assumption of the office of President, with the formalities prescribed by the constitution thereof. I cordially reciprocate the statements you express for the continuance of friendly relations which have existed between the United States and the Hawaiian islands, and assure you of my best wishes for your own personal prosperity. Written at Washington on the 7th day of August, 1894. Your good friend, GROVER CLEVELAND."

"By the President: W. Q. Gresham, Secretary of State."

In reply Mr. Dole said: "Mr. Minister: It is with sincere gratification that I have received the information that the President of the United States has confirmed the recognition as promptly extended by your excellency to the republic of Hawaii. Permit me on behalf of the Hawaiian people to reciprocate the friendly sentiments expressed by you toward this government and assure you of our desire that relations which shall be mutual and advantageous may ever exist between the two countries."

The confirmation of the reported recognition has disappointed the royalists and the most rabid of them acknowledge that the cause of the ex-queen is now dead.

MUST QUIT POLITICS.

Union Pacific Will Discharge Men Who Accept Party Nominations.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 6.—The employees of the Union Pacific have been indulging in too much politics and the management has ordered them to desist by posting up on bulletin boards this bulletin: "On account of personal strife engendered by partisanship it has been decided to ask all employees of the Union Pacific company to refrain from active participation in politics. Should any employee desire to accept the nomination for any office he will be requested to resign from the service of the company." The order has caused much discussion, being considered a direct blow at the populist party.

One More Town Gone.

CARLTON, Minn., Sept. 6.—Fire last night burned everything at Carlton except the school house. The fire came upon the place without warning. People saved their lives by getting into the lake. It is feared that many settlers lost their lives. A relief train was sent from here at once and brought people down. Even the ties of the railroad were burned. No lives reported lost in this vicinity.

ASTOR'S DAUGHTER
SUED FOR DIVORCEJ. COLEMAN DRAYTON WANTS
A LEGAL SEPARATION.

His Proceedings to be Freed From the Representative of the Wealthy and Influential Astor Family Create a Great Sensation in New York Society.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—[Special]—An immense sensation was created this morning by the filing of papers in a suit for divorce by J. Coleman Drayton. Mrs. Drayton is the daughter of William Astor.

REPORT ON CHANCELLORS.

Is Ready for Submission to Pythian Supreme Lodge.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The supreme lodge of Knights of Pythias at its morning session yesterday adopted a new system of transfer of membership. The new rule provides that by paying dues for thirty days a knight may retain his membership in his old lodge unless admitted to another within that time. The committee to which was referred the question of the course to be taken toward disloyal supreme chancellors is ready to report, but declines to make known the nature of its recommendations until the report has been submitted to the supreme lodge. It is understood the report recommends that a committee be appointed to investigate the circumstances of the Indianapolis meeting, and if the action of that meeting is found to constitute disloyalty the past supreme chancellors who took part be disbarred from participation in the proceedings of the supreme lodge. The reports of the committees favoring exclusion of liquor dealers from future membership in the order, and the restraint of the German lodges from performing the ritual in their language are ready for presentation, but will probably not be considered until later in the session.

BASEBALL.

Games Played in the National League Yesterday.

Yesterday's National league games did not change the relative standing of the clubs. Brooklyn and Cleveland each played an errorless game with a score of 2 for Brooklyn and 1 for Cleveland. At the end of the ninth inning Washington and St. Louis had 4 runs each. St. Louis refused to abide by a decision by the umpire, and Washington was awarded the game by the customary score of 9 to 0. Games played were:

At Washington:	Washington.....3 0 0 0 0 0 4 3-7
St. Louis.....0 2 0 0 0 2 0 *-4
At Brooklyn:	Brooklyn.....0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1-2
Cleveland.....0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-1
At Baltimore:	Baltimore.....5 3 0 1 2 1 0 0 *-12

Iowa Soldiers' Monument.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 6.—The corner stone of the Iowa soldiers' monument is being laid with appropriate ceremonies this afternoon. The monument is on the site of the old capitol building, directly south of the present structure, and is an imposing structure, after designs furnished by the late Harriet Ketchum of Mount Pleasant, Iowa's sculptor. At the monument site Gov. Jackson will make an address and the corner stone will be laid by the grand lodge of Iowa A. F. and A. M.

Bristol Mill Will Resume.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 6.—A break occurred in the ranks of the manufacturers yesterday afternoon which will undoubtedly result in the resumption of work in all the mills here next week. The directors of the Bristol corporation met for the purpose of taking action looking toward the starting of the mill. It was practically decided to do so on Monday next. The overseers have been notified to report at that mill Saturday.

Garment Workers Win the Fight.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—It looks as if the garment workers have won more than half their battle. Many of the manufacturers are willing to pay higher prices providing a demand is made general. Many of the contractors have decided to accede to the demands of the men for union rules. Within two days 3,000 men will return to work.

Northwest Indian War Reported.

BATTLEFORD, N. W. T., Sept. 6.—An Indian uprising is threatened. It is Gabriel Dumont, Louis Riel's lieutenant, is at Jackfish Lake and inciting the Indians to make trouble. Thirty mounted police went out there late Saturday night and nothing has been heard as to their movements, and much anxiety is felt for them.

Asiatic Cholera in Maryland.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Sept. 6.—John Peter Walker, a native of Bavaria, died here last night from what is supposed to be Asiatic cholera. It is feared he may have spread the disease.

WANTED ALL TO DIE FOR A YELLOW DOG

MRS. RYAN ASKED CHIEF ACHESON FOR AID.

Her Daughter's White Dress Suffered and a Neighborhood Row that Shook the Fourth Ward Followed—"Brutality to Animals" One of the Counts in the Indictment.

A common, ordinary yellow dog, of no particular strain, and with no claim whatever to aristocratic lineage, has managed by his own unaided efforts to embroil two families in the Fourth ward until the peace is in hourly danger of being fractured. Mrs. B. T. Ryan confided her wrongs to Chief Acheson this morning.

"There's a German family that lives just below us," she said. "Their name is Himmelsberger, or something that sounds like it, and I don't doubt they're very respectable, decent people, but they have a yellow pup that must be killed or there will be trouble. I raise a few chickens, and this dog chases them until they are worn down to skin and bone. He eats every egg he can find, and he is over in our yard, bothering my hens, more than two-thirds of his time. I have never done anything more than kick him and throw coal at him, until last evening when my daughter Clara was starting down town. She had on a white dress and this beast jumped on her with his muddy paws, on her breast and on skirts, so that the poor child was not fit to be seen. The dress is absolutely ruined, unless we can get it cleaned. Well, there was an ax lying by the stump in the yard, and I picked it up and hit that dog with it, and pretty near cut one of his legs off, and Clara she went into the house and went to bed, crying."

"Pretty soon Mr. Himmelsberger, he came up to the fence and said he was going to have me arrested for brutality to animals, and him and me had it hot and heavy. Then his wife came along, and I won't demean myself by repeating the language she used. It was awful. Clara's young man (he was lingering around still), he came up and told Mrs. Himmelsberger that was no way to talk to a lady, which it sure wasn't, and then Mr. Himmelsberger he took to cursing Clara's young man in Dutch. I know he was cursing, because it sounded so spiteful. And he wanted Harry to go out in the road and fight him, which Harry had too much sense to do, acting on my advice. Then Clara got up and put a wrapper on and came out, and wanted Harry to go and kill both the Himmelsbergers and the dog, but I persuaded him not to. Now, how can I get a warrant, or a summons, or whatever you call it, for those people? And, in special, how can I get that dog killed?"

All of which questions being answered, Mrs. Ryan left, promising faithfully to retain a lawyer and visit Judge Phelps.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Fact or Fiction About Two Great Fair Awards.

A newspaper paragraph denounces as "false" the claim of a baking powder company to an award at the World's Fair. Whom can it mean?

Certainly not Dr. Price's. Why? Because, as the records show, Dr. Price's exhibited, competed and received the highest award, both at Chicago and the California Midwinter Fair. The award in California included Gold Medal. The official examiners pronounced it the strongest, the purest, the most wholesome, some and efficient of all the baking powders. Its title to confidence is unquestioned.

Can it be the manufacturers of a New York powder, fictitiously labeled "absolutely pure" who are making "false" claims? That would be strange, indeed, inasmuch as they were not even considered in the awards.

Was it ammonia in the New York powder that prevented its makers from competing? If not what?

COUPON WON AT FOND DU LAC

J. O. Gerrity Drives McKinney's Colt in a Good Race.

Maud Wright, who beat Joe Gaines in a field of 2:25 trotters at Rochester yesterday, is the same horse that trotted here last June. F. B. Loomis' Milton, who was also here, won the 2:31 class purse.

H. D. McKinney's colt, Coupon, won the purse for 3:00, two year old trotters at Fond du Lac yesterday, and only had to go in 2:28 1/2 to do it. J. O. Gerrity, the well known Oshkosh reinsman drove the youngster.

FARMERS ANGRY AT HUNTERS.

Scattered Among Cattle and Horses Far Too Freely.

Farmers appear in the city daily and enter complaint against reckless hunters. They shoot cattle, fire into flocks of fowls at barns and houses and enter fields where they are strictly forbidden not to go. The grangers threaten to commence war against the reckless fellows if they do not stop the unlawful practice.

FOURTH WISCONSIN BATTERY.

Fifth Annual Reunion—Charles Hanchot Elected President.

The fifth annual reunion of the Fourth Wisconsin Battery association was held in Beloit yesterday with a good attendance. Charles Hanchot of Chicago was elected president, F. N. Graves of Beloit, vice-president; L. W. Austin of Beloit, secretary and treasurer.

JANESVILLE FOLKS IN BELOIT.

Doings of the Local Baptist Association—Paper By Miss Rowe.

Miss Jennie Rowe of this city, discussed Sunday school work at the thirty-third annual session of the Janesville Baptist association in Beloit, Tuesday afternoon. Dr. M. G. Hodge delivered the annual sermon.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Mission work was discussed, Mrs. M. G. Hodge, of Janesville and Mrs. O. P. Bestor of Evansville leading.

The subject of Miss Rowe's paper was, "What Shall We Do With the Boy in the Sunday School?" In the absence of the writer the paper was presented by Miss Lizzie Morris. Good suggestions were given on how to interest boys in the Sunday school.

The standing committees appointed by the association were:

Prudential—The pastor of the church where the association meets and Rev. Joseph Mountain, of Albany, N. Dearborn, Esq., Janesville; Rev. A. W. Runyan, Beloit; H. Ryderick, Juda.

Missionary—Revs. J. Andercek, Juda; O. P. Bestor, Evansville; Joseph Mountain.

Sunday School—Rev. O. P. Bestor, B. B. Collier, Beloit; Wm. Pye, Clinton; Sister Newman, Juda.

Obituary—Dr. M. G. Hodge, Janesville; B. Walgrave Atherton, Albany; Mrs. M. P. Treat, Clinton.

Resolutions—Rev. W. B. Stubbart, Clinton; Jos. Mountain and J. A. Climmer, Evansville.

Young People's Work—Rev. A. W. Runyan, Beloit; F. P. Pond, Beloit; Lizzie Gillis, Evansville.

Our next session—Rev. J. Andercek, N. Dearborn, D. Tallman, Clinton.

HERE ARE BRIEF STATE JOTTINGS

The Sheboygan, St. Paul & Central railway will be completed by December 1.

Mrs. D. F. Wilcox, of Quincy, Ill., is visiting relatives and friends in Janesville.

PRESIDENT ADAMS of the state university will return from his vacation trip tomorrow.

ANDREW BISHOP of Two Rivers, has sued John Schraide to recover $130 of $750 lost in a "green goods" deal.

THERE are indications that this year's freshman class of the state university will be larger than ever before.

THE Woman's Missionary Circle of the Baptist church, will meet at the church, Friday, September 7, at 3 o'clock.

EX-GOVERNOR HOARD has returned from Nova Scotia, where he delivered an address at a provincial dairy meeting and fair.

FRANK THOMPSON, a tramp, who broke into a cellar at Oregon and stole some food, was sent to Waupun for one year.

Mrs. F. HOFFER of Franksville, dropped dead soon after having a bone which had become fast in her throat, pushed down.

TWELVE-year-old Njord Nelson of Stoughton was shot in the arm by an unknown person while he was bathing in the Catfish river.

THE Fond du Lac county prohibitionists could not find a lawyer who belongs to their party, and accordingly no nomination for district attorney was made.

APPLETON people are circulating a petition to have the council make the chief of the fire department a paid office, so that the chief can devote his whole time to the department.

MADISON Populists are making an effort to have Mrs. Lease give an address to the Dane county fair. They also expect to have Debs speak in Madison during the campaign.

WEST BENDERS are subscribing $15,000 toward the capital stock of the Eager-Kress Manufacturing Company, which will build there, its plant in Milwaukee having been destroyed by fire.

DURING the forest fires at Partridge twelve-year-old Frieda Johnson saved her two-year old brother by carrying him to a pond some distance from her home. The children were brought to Superior.

A BURLY tramp having been repulsed from the farm of John Bartels, near Oshkosh, returned and slapped Mrs. Bartels in the face with an acid-saturated sponge, causing an unsightly disfigurement.

HOD A. TAYLOR, of Madison, has been notified that the forest fires in Pine county, Minn., near Hinckley, burned over more than 1,000 acres of pine timber of which he is the owner. The loss cannot be determined at present, but will be heavy.

THE well at the insane asylum in West Salem was destroyed by an explosion caused by an attempt to rid it of foul air. Workmen were knocked off their feet and badly shaken up. The supposition is that it was filled with gas from the pumping engine.

THERE was almost a riot at the picnic of the Newhall club of Racine at Eagle Lake. The only water on the grounds came from a pump owned by a woman who declined to allow the picnickers to use it unless they paid tribute at the rate of two drinks for five cents. She guarded the pump with a broom and held the fort for half the day before she relented.

Few Rates to Pittsburg, Pa.

On account of the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic the Northwestern line will, on September 8 and 9, sell excursion tickets to Pittsburg, Pa., and return at exceedingly low rates; good for return passage until September 25, 1894, inclusive. For tickets and full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern railway.

FIRE POLICE SEEK AID FOR HOMELESS

CLOTHING AND PROVISIONS TO BE GATHERED HERE

Captain Evenson Arranges to Have the Patrol Call For Supplies—Governor Peck's Appeal to the Cities Who Have Not Suffered Through the Touch of Fire.

Mayor Thoroughgood has issued a call for a public meeting of citizens tomorrow evening for the purpose of adopting some systematized plan to aid the sufferers in northern Wisconsin. The governor has appealed to the people of the state to forward supplies immediately to these people, and no time should be lost by our people in collecting supplies. The meeting should be attended by all, and arrangements made to forward a carload of articles at once. Systematic relief work has been undertaken by the Fire Police. Supplies may be left at Prentice & Evenson's store. If a postal card is sent to Captain Evenson the patrol wagon will call at any house in the city. Clothing, bedding and money are the things most useful at present. Rations are furnished by the state, but flour, canned meat and other food that will not spoil on the road can be used to advantage. All supplies will be sent north, free of charge by the express companies. Governor Peck's call is as follows:

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, MADISON, September 3. To the people of Wisconsin: Once more the forest fires have wiped out the homes of many of our fellow citizens in the northern part of the state, and an appeal has been made to me for immediate help. In the vicinity of Cumberland several towns are destroyed and citizens are liable to suffer for the necessities of life. I call upon my fellow citizens of Wisconsin for money, clothing, bedding, provisions and such articles as destitute people can use. What is done must be done at once. Everything should be sent to Milwaukee, addressed to Colonel W. J. Boyle, secretary relief committee. Money may be sent by telegraph or in any manner that it can reach us speedily. Let every citizen in the state that has not exhausted its resources, send something at once. There are many places not yet heard from, where supplies will be needed, and there is no danger that too much will be sent. I rely confidently on the people who have plenty and to spare, to help those of our citizens who are in distress. Whatever is done must be done promptly. GEO. W. PECK, Governor.

SANGER WON IN EDGERTON.

Famous Bicycle Rider Finds His Competitors Easy—How the Prizes Went.

Several from Janesville attended the Edgerton tournament. Marvin Price of Edgerton, won the boys' seventy-five yard handicap race, his time being 7 1/2 seconds. In the half-mile handicap bicycle race W. F. Sanger of Milwaukee, was the winner, in 1:17. F. Cnare of Evansville, was the winner of the mile handicap bicycle race, he having eighty-five yards handicap. W. F. Sanger won the mile open bicycle race, and K. G. Booth, of Monroe, the 220-yard run. W. F. Sanger won the one-half mile open bicycle race, and Fred Smith the 100-yard scratch foot race. James Hodges won the boys' half-mile open race and the two-mile handicap bicycle race was won by F. Cnare, of Evansville. Sanger failed to beat the record in his race against time.

IT STARTLES US.

When We Read Of Some Of These Wonderful Things.

Miss Bessie L. Putnam, a well known and popular young lady residing on the Lowell Road, Lawrence, Mass., has just had a very narrow escape from death.

"Two years ago," she says, "I found I was beginning to be very nervous and that the least excitement would bring on a fit of hysteria from which it took me two or three hours to recover. My nerves got in such a bad condition that some days I would cry for hours and then have a laughing spell."

"I was completely unstrung and could do nothing about my place. My stomach began to trouble me, and I could not keep anything on it. From a woman weighing 162 pounds I found myself reduced to a shadow, and was so feeble that I could hardly dress myself."

"I tried several physicians, but they did not seem to be able to do anything to relieve me. I really thought my days were numbered and in fact made every preparation for my death, as I fully expected to die within a short time."

MISS BESSIE L. PUTNAM.

"One of our neighbors calling wanted to know if I had ever used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and spoke so strongly in favor of it that I thought I would try it. When I had finished the first bottle and started on the second I felt that instead of a doomed woman I was going to be cured and enjoy life."

"My nervousness grew less and I ate without my food distressing me in the least, something I had not done for two years, and I began to gain in flesh. I took six bottles and am now a well strong woman, and hope to live to a good old age. My faith in Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is so strong that I gladly tell everyone what it has done for me, and I cannot too highly express my thanks for what Dr. Greene has done for me."

It is a fact that this wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will cure when others fail; that it will save life after all hope is gone. Take it and you will regain health and vigor, for it is the medicine that cures. Dr. Greene, its discoverer, is our most successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted at his office, 35 West 14th street, New York, free, personally or by letter.

PLEASANT WEEK AT LAUDERDALE.

Janesville Young People Spend a Week in the Harris Cottage.

All Souls' Sunday School Meeting.

The pupils, teachers and all friends of this Sunday school are requested to meet at the church, Friday evening, September 7, at 7:30 o'clock. Business of great importance to be discussed. GEO. L. CARRINGTON, Supt.

Changes in Dress.

Rubber shoes are not as salable as they were a few years ago. Women are getting sensible. They have double soled boots that are made for the street and worn on the street. Some are calfskin, but all are thick, serviceable and comfortably fitted. Boots of this sort invariably accompany the cloth dress, felt hat and loose gloves of the woman who understands and illustrates the eternal fitness of things.

JANESVILLE BOY UP FOR GOVERNOR

J. H. BUDD NOMINATED BY CALIFORNIA DEMOCRATS

The Aspirant Was Born in the Bower City and Is a Nephew Of James Harris—His Father Was the Proprietor Of the Old Novelty Works.

A Janesville boy has been nominated by the democrats of California for governor. James H. Budd is the favored one and he now hails from Stockton, in that state. Mr. Budd was born in this city, way back in the 50's. His father, Joseph H. Budd was the proprietor of the Novelty works, at the corner of West Bluff and Franklin streets, at that time one of the largest machine shops in the state. Mr. Budd and family removed to California when the now candidate was a small boy, settling at Stockton. The boy developed into an enterprising business man, was a leading citizen of Stockton, and represented his district in the Fifty-first congress, although residing in a republican district. He served but one term in congress, returning home to reengage in business. He now comes to the front as the democratic candidate for governor. Mr. Budd is a nephew of James Harris of this city, and has visited Janesville several times since the removal of the family to California.

GOOD ATTRACTION IS COMING

Ezra Kendall to Follow the Police Inspector at Myers' Grand.

Strong situations and lively dialogue marked "The Police Inspector" last night, but the company was hardly up to the standard of the piece. It was one of the attractions booked by the former management and similar visitations are not likely to be suffered.

Next Wednesday, September 12, will mark the opening of an amusement season for 1894-95 at the Myers Grand Opera house. Ezra Kendall will be the attraction on the occasion. His new play, "The Substitute," written by Archibald Gordon and J. W. Hawkins, Jr., is founded upon an incident of the civil war, and the strong dramatic qualities have an ample backing of comedy.

Jewish Chess Players.

In speaking of the great number of successful chess players of the Jewish race, and of the contest between the two Jews, Lasker and Steinitz, for the chess championship of the world, the Jewish Chronicle dwells upon certain traits which are prominent in the Jewish character. It maintains that the Jews are the best chess players because of their possession of mental qualities which have always been useful to the race, such, for example, as quickness of apprehension, tenacity of purpose, readiness in the application of resources, the power of estimating probabilities, and an intuition which enables them to seize the opportune moment for developing action. These traits of mind have been marked in all the Jews who have won fame and fortune in the playing of chess.

A YOUNG GIRL'S FORTUNE.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: "Our daughter, Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but see received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nervine she now weighs 106 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Nervine has brought her. When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent us a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate."—Mrs. R. R. Bullock, Brighton, N. Y.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs.

1893—The Haitian warship Alexander foundered off Cape Tiburn, Haiti, carrying down 80 people, including several Haitian diplomats.

DEMOCRATS IN SESSION.

Democrats are in convention to-day. The ticket presented will be looked for with interest, for it represents struggles of a desperate sort.

For weeks it has looked as if the only course open was to renominate the entire old ticket. Nobody else could be persuaded to stand, while the office holders could be dragged into line without much chance for protest.

Such a move with its fatal admission of weakness has been dreaded by the democratic bosses, and they have raked the state to find men who would consent to take passage on their sinking ship.

Such men are scarce.

Poetic justice suggests that those who brought democracy into disrepute in Wisconsin be compelled to bear the burden to the end. Such a course means rebuke to Wall and Vilas, no less than to Peck, O'Connor and Bashford; however, and the chairman of the state central committee is not the man to submit without a struggle.

His hold on the county delegates is as strong as ever and the ticket named this afternoon will not be meant to further democratic ends, but to aid the boss and his patron, the distinguished pine-land magnate known in Washington as Senator William Vilas.

The sugar trust is fortunate to have so good a friend as Secretary Carlisle at the head of the treasury just now.

An unfriendly secretary of the treasury could so construe the confectioner's clause of the tariff as to cut into the profits of the trust to the extent of about one cent a pound. Mr. Carlisle's friendship for the trust has been proven, however.

Senator Hill winks the other eye and quietly shakes hands with himself every time he reads about his accepting the nomination for governor this year. He finds a seat in the senate very satisfactory for the present, and, like most other men, thinks the next governor of New York will be a republican.

If Mr. Cleveland will pay the price he can get the support of Senator Hill, in his fight with Senator Gorman which will be renewed next winter. But the price is high. Nothing more nor less than the making of Hill the administration candidate for the democratic nomination in '96.

Congressman Bryan, of Nebraska, began his editorial career with some very pretty promises and an attempt to name his successor in the house. From which it may be inferred that Mr. Bryan is opposed to any bossing that is not done by Mr. Bryan.

Tammany is having a great fright. The waves of popular indignation have grown so high that attempts are being made to lighten the Tammany ship by throwing overboard members of the crew.

When great floods devastate a section we deem water the most dangerous element, but the great forest fires now seem to have been much worse than any flood could have been.

There ought to be a warning for politicians whose weakness is "playing to the grand stand" in the large number of grand stands which have been destroyed by fire this year.

Here's Charles A. Dana's latest tribute to Mr. Cleveland: "It is not our fault that he has proved himself unworthy of confidence either as a statesman or a man of integrity and honor."

Spain has retaliated and Germany is preparing to retaliate upon the United States. All on account of democratic legislation.

Heavy Losses of the Railroads.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 6.—A careful canvas made shows the aggregate immediate losses of railroads in the forest fires are $205,000. This includes what the roads lost by telegraphic disturbances, but has no relation to the incident demoralization of traffic, which of course is great. The losses are divided thus: Eastern railway of Minnesota, $96,000; St. Paul & Duluth, $57,000; Omaha, $34,000; Northern Pacific, $2,000. The Northern Pacific is fully insured. The St. Paul & Duluth has $42,000 insurance, and of all the losses combined at least 70 per cent is covered.

Home Seekers' Excursion.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas Ry., will sell excursion tickets on September 25 and October 9 at greatly reduced rates to all points in Texas, to Eddy, New Mexico and Lake Charles, La. Many Trains Bringing Supplies.

PINE CITY, Minn., Sept. 6.—The trains carrying relief arrived at frequent intervals yesterday, and as quickly as the clothing, household utensils, food, etc., were placed in the warehouse they were distributed to the waiting homeless people. The work of relief proceeded smoothly.

The last number of the bulletin of the American Geographical society announces that the recent study of the observations on mountain summits in the neighborhood of Mt. St. Elias, shows that Mt. Logan is the loftiest peak in North America, with a height of 19,500 feet, thus being 1,200 feet higher than Orizaba, and 1,500 feet higher than Mt. St. Elias.

BRIEF BITS OF HUMOR.

Insurance Item.

"I wonder if I couldn't collect at least half of the insurance on my wife," remarked Col. Percy Yerger to his friend, Maj. Witherspoon, as they were sipping their mint juleps in an Austin saloon.

"Why, is your wife dead, then?" asked the friend.

"Well, not exactly. But every night when I come home late she says she is half dead with fright and anxiety. It seems to me that in law and equity I could collect half the insurance money."—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

Some Preparations.

Wife—Considering how long I've been away, I think you might have made some preparations to receive me.

ALL ARE AGAINST JANESVILLE MEN

OUTSIDE POLITICIANS COMBIN- ING THIS AFTERNOON.

Convention Tomorrow Afternoon May Bring Out Many Surprises—Beloit Will Make a Hard Fight for Appleby—Wallihan Gaining Strength—Sample Tickets.

A winning republican ticket will be in the field by this time tomorrow, and the county Warwicks, who have swarmed around the hotels all day, will be at peace. Rock county never saw so hot a local canvass as the one just ending. Nearly half the delegates are in town a day ahead of time to survey the ground—or perhaps to escape the various candidates who are patrolling the highways and byways of the county on their last grand round-up. The riding of the country began early in July and has been kept up for two hot and dusty months. Nothing has been overlooked. Today things came to a head, and any number of schemes were discussed.

Beloit will come up tomorrow with one object in life—to nominate Appleby. Everything will be sacrificed to this cause, and this afternoon a combination with Evansville and the southern tier of towns was discussed as insuring victory. A move to renominate District Attorney Wheeler was also put on foot by the Beloit men, who feared the attitude of Sloan and Jackson toward their candidate. It is positively declared, however, that Wheeler will not be a candidate under any circumstances, and that he will be in the convention hall to make this statement.

S. F. Wallihan has developed surprising strength in his canvass for register of deeds, and is being groomed by the Appleby men who hope to borrow the votes which he will command.

Many Are Drafting Tickets.

A few sample tickets were gathered in by Gazette reporters this morning. One of these combinations was made by a city politician and is as follows:

Sheriff—T. L. Acheson.
Treasurer—C. N. Nye.
County Clerk—W. J. McIntyre.
Clerk of Court—C. B. Conrad.
District Attorney—H. S. Sloan.
Register—C. L. Valentine.
Coroner—George Hanthorn.

Another combination was made by a Beloit man:

Sheriff—W. H. Appleby.
Treasurer—C. N. Nye.
County Clerk—W. J. McIntyre.
Clerk of Court—McGowan or Conrad.

District Attorney—W. A. Jackson.
Register—S. F. Wallihan.
Coroner—George Hanthorn.

Another combination gives R. P. Maltress the sheriff's office; Nye for treasurer; McIntyre for county clerk; Conrad for clerk of court; Jackson for attorney; and Wallihan for register. It is claimed that Appleby's supporters will unite and endeavor to give the plum to Maltress if the Beloit man is beaten.

SMITH WON'T BE AGENT HERE

The C. M. & St. P. Has Not Decided On the Successor to H. R. Johnson.

E. B. Smith, station agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway at Platteville, and who was appointed to succeed the late H. R. Johnson at this place, returned to Platteville today, declining to accept the Janesville office. Mr. Smith besides holding the agency of the railway at Platteville is also the express agent, the salary of the two positions being $117 a month, while the Janesville office is only worth $100 a month, besides meaning more responsibility and work. Mr. Smith preferred retaining his old position, and on holding a conference here this morning with Superintendent Collins, declined the promotion and returned home. No other appointment has been made, and it is understood that two or three days will elapse before an agent is appointed. Many of the Janesville shippers favor a division of the business here, with a passenger agent and a freight agent. This plan is followed by the C. & N. W., and proves very satisfactory.

MAYOR CALLS A RELIEF MEETING

Citizens Will Assemble in the Council Chamber at 8 p. m. Tomorrow.

I deem it advisable to appeal to the citizens of Janesville to come to the relief of the sufferers by fires that have caused so much destruction and loss of life. I am convinced the situation is even much more terrible than we of Janesville can realize. I appeal to the churches of all denominations and societies of every kind to take united action in rendering all assistance possible toward alleviating the dire distress that must necessarily exist wherever these fires have existed and therefore I request that a public meeting be held in the common council chamber at 8 o'clock p. m., Friday night for the purpose of organizing a relief committee and establishing headquarters, whereby we can as promptly as possible proceed to the collection and transportation of supplies and cash, at the earliest possible moment. It behooves every charitable and public spirited citizen to take steps for the advancement of the good work, and I hope the meeting will be attended by as many of the sympathizers as possible, thereby enabling me to select two from each ward to work in the interest of our terribly stricken brethren.

J. THOROUGHGOOD, Mayor.

CARD TO THE JANESVILLE PUBLIC

Manager Stoddard's Statement to the People of the Bower City.

To THE PUBLIC—I have leased the Myers Grand for a term of years and will open the season next Wednesday night with Ezra Kendall's new play, "The Substitute." I wish to say to the good people of Janesville, that I leased the Grand because I have great faith in Janesville, and I will endeavor to furnish amusements that will be not only enjoyable but beneficial. No burlesques or unworthy attractions will be put upon the boards. While it is impossible to please everybody I will endeavor to do so as near as possible. My first attraction, Ezra Kendall's "Substitute," I think will come as near pleasing all as any performance possibly can. I have come here to remain permanently, and with your hearty cooperation, Janesville will see attractions that are far above the average. Every one of my booking are attractions that play in all the large cities and are very highly recommended.

WM. H. STODDARD, Manager Myers Grand.

CAUGHT 100 POUNDS OF PICKEREL

John Ehle Had an Hour and a Half of Lively Sport.

One hundred pounds of pickerel in an hour and a half was the record John Ehle made at H. L. Skavlem's Koshkonong place this morning. There were twenty-seven of the fish, and they varied in weight from two to five pounds.

Amusement Season Opens.

Next Wednesday night the Myers Grand will be thrown open for the season. The play will be Ezra Kendall's "Substitute." It is one of the best, and as it is under the personal management of Will O. Wheeler, who managed the late Patti Rosa, so successful, it is sure to succeed. This will be the first play under the present management, and if Mr. Stoddard will have all such amusements here as Ezra Kendall's "Substitute," theatre goers will be highly pleased.

Accumulated Wealth.

WARSHIPS SENT TO ASIA.

United States Vessels Are Being Massed at Seat of War.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The United States navy department is gathering quite a fleet at the Asiatic station. Commander Goodrich, with the Concord, has arrived at Yokohama and the Charleston is on her way. The Petrel was ordered from Bering sea to the Asiatic station with the Concord, but the latter reached Japan first.

The Charleston is due at Yokohama about Sept. 20 and has on board the new commanding officer of the Asiatic station, Admiral Carpenter. She will touch at Honolulu on her way to Japan. When the several vessels ordered to Asiatic waters arrive, the United States will be quite respectably represented at the opening of Japanese-Chinese warlike operations. Protection will be given American residents. Although little of importance has occurred lately in connection with the war, so far as the United States is advised, naval officers think it a question of but a short time before active hostilities are resumed.

TAX ON INCOMES.

Commissioner Miller's Bureau Will Collect 2 Per Cent for the Year 1894.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—People blessed with incomes over $1,000 a year must be ready to pay the penalty on Jan. 1 next. The income tax will then be due. The commissioner of internal revenue so announced unofficially this morning. Moreover, he said that people subject to the tax will have to pay 2 per cent of their total earnings in excess of $1,000 for the year 1894. Mr. Miller claims that the income tax which became a part of the law on Aug. 28 makes all incomes earned or received during the calendar year 1894 subject to taxation.

NEW SCHOOL TO COST THE CITY $48,700

ALL PROPOSALS WERE FINALLY DROPPED.

Eighteen Contractors Tried For the Work and their Bids Ran As High As $64,600—The Architect's Estimate Was $39,000 and Money Will Be Scarce.

There were eighteen bids received by the school board at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon for constructing the new high school building. The lowest bid was that of John Kearns of Milwaukee, $48,700. The list was as follows:

John Alexander, Rockford.	$57,500
R. J. Danielson, Milwaukee.	53,100
W. E. Stevens, Beloit.	58,100
Nowlan & Peters, Janesville.	53,400
Hugh R. Edwards, Racine.	49,200
McKinney Bros., Rockford.	55,000
Colling, Wray & Blair, Janesville.	57,223
Robert Olsenberg, Milwaukee.	55,750
P. E. Posner, Milwaukee.	55,800
Duke, Shroder & Co., Milwaukee.	54,200
Hinckley & Powers, Minneapolis.	56,000
Thomas R. Bentley, Milwaukee.	51,900
Lencher & Thwaite, Milwaukee.	62,000
Peter Clos, Milwaukee.	56,800
Beesen & Kleppe, Milwaukee.	61,350
Clark & Stewart, Janesville.	52,620
F. Stewart, Freeport.	64,600
John Kearns, Milwaukee.	48,700

The board immediately took this bid under advisement.

The lowest bid represents more money than the board has at its disposal for the completing and furnishing the building. The board anticipated that the building would not cost over forty thousand dollars.

At 4 o'clock the board decided to reject all bids on the ground that they were above the appropriation. Bids will be received on the same plans and specifications next Monday at 2 p. m.

Dr. H. A. McChesney, Janesville, Wisconsin.

Dear Sir:—As you know I began treatment two weeks ago for a deafness of ten years' standing caused by a catarrhal stoppage around the ear, creating a continuous ringing noise that made it impossible to hear or catch a sound at any considerable distance. In that brief space (14 days) I find myself so greatly relieved that in going to church yesterday and occupying a pew in the rear, I was surprised that I could hear distinctly every word from the pulpit, a blessing that I have not enjoyed for years. I join most heartily in recommending your Catarrh Cure to everybody afflicted with catarrh in any form, and particularly of the head and throat, and advise them to try your medicines, as they will certainly find immediate and sure relief, and I firmly believe a permanent cure.

Your friend and well wisher,

OSCAR COBB.

MY BROWN ROSE.

Oh, my Rose ain't white,
An my Rose ain't red,
An my Rose don't grow
On de vine on de shed.

But she lives in decabin
Whar de roses twines,
An she rings out 'er clo'es
In de shade o' de vines.

An de red leaves fall,
An de white rose sheds
Tell dey kiver all de groun
Whar my brown Rose treads.

An de butterfly comes,
An de bumblebee, too,
And de hummin birds hum
All de long day throo.

And dey sip at de white,
An dey taste de red,
An dey fly in an out
O' de vines round de shed.

While I comes along
An I get hers some buds,
An I necks some remarks
About renching or suds.

But de birds an de bees
An de rest of us knows
Dat we all langin roun
Des ter look at my Rose.

HOW SHE WAS CURED

Father Donnet was a vine dresser. Working throughout the year among the vines, he had acquired the wine color of an onion. He went to Revigny now and then to put by some money that he might have a good dowry for his daughter Rosetta, a pretty lass, blond as the harvest field and as fresh as a May morn.

Rosetta had entered her eighteenth year and was much sought after. She drew some lovers by the hope of finding in her a "good match." Others she attracted by her beauty and fascination. Time lost! Rosetta only laughed at her suitors and found much to ridicule in this one and that one.

She laughed besides for that best of reasons with a young girl—that her heart was no longer her own. At a country festival she had danced several waltzes with Paolo Laurient, the son of a rich dealer in Ligny. The brown hair, large dark eyes, regular profile and caressing voice of Paolo had produced upon Rosetta an ineffaceable impression. His gentle and affable manners contrasted especially with the roughness of the youths of Revigny. Having received a good education, he talked with marvelous facility, and Rosetta was not slow in listening to him.

On the evening of the festival this true daughter of Eve, having lost her family voluntarily in the crowd, returned to Revigny on Paolo's arm. They were at least two hours on the way, walking slowly and compelled from time to time to pause when the wind blew too strongly beneath the great poplars which lined the avenue. They arrived at the village, which was deserted, and under the field of azure studded with stars exchanged their first kiss.

Very frequently after this Rosetta had met Paolo. Then his father had sent him to Paris to study medicine, and the lovers, exchanging vows of mutual fealty, sadly separated, and this was why Rosetta laughed at the suitors who came in handsome Paolo's absence.

For the first months after his departure he wrote regularly to Rosetta. Then the letters became more rare, with intervals of a month. Gradually they became laconic billets, scribbled, no doubt, in haste at the corner of a table in a cafe and giving evidence of growing indifference. At last they ceased entirely. Paolo had forgotten her.

It was an old story. At first Paolo had refused to take part in the diversions of his fellow students, the balls and brewery meetings. Then they teased him and accused him of having left a love in the country. This made him angry; but, being fond of pleasure, he soon decided to take his part in the play.

"After all," he said to himself, "they have reason to sneer. Why quarrel with pleasure? Leave sadness to the gray-beards and profit by the present."

"But Rosetta?" his conscience murmured. "Bah!" he thought. "She will console herself. Let her go. Perhaps she has already forgotten me. 'Lovers' oaths are quickly broken,' says the old proverb, and why should ours prove an exception to the rule?"

But Rosetta was not to be consoled. On the contrary, she suffered terribly at this abandonment and many times turned her mournful eyes toward Paris.

Several years went by. Paolo had known how to divert himself and yet study. After having passed his examination with honor he wrote to his father for permission to establish himself in Paris. To this, however, Father Laurient could not consent. He desired his son to return immediately to Ligny and establish himself there.

"As for the repugnance you seem to manifest for your native country," he wrote, "that is not the point in question. The workshops of Ligny have made you a gentleman, and you belong to the people here. You owe a sacred debt to your country, and as sure as you are a gentleman this debt, my son, you will certainly pay."

"The deuce!" thought Paolo. "Father Laurient will be hard to convince. But I must make him yield. Besides, if I return there, I shall see Rosetta, whom, I must confess, I have treated basely. I hope she has not started a scandal to meet me at Ligny. But Father Laurient would have spoken of it if she had. I shall stay here."

Paolo's fears were groundless. Rosetta had resigned herself to the inevitable. She dared not aspire now to be Paolo's wife. Would it not be a very astonishing thing if the little Rosetta Donnet should become the bride of Dr. Laurient? There would be laughter for 10 leagues about at such a wedding. So she resigned herself without anger, without bitterness, contented, when alone, to lament silently her vanished dream, her castle of cards fallen to the earth.

She became pale and languid. Her relations sought in vain to discover the cause of the strange malady that lay so heavily upon her. To all their questions she said:

"It is nothing—only a little indisposition."

The Donnets, however, consulted the most celebrated physicians of the region. None of them could discover the cause of the trouble.

But some good country friend had been behind Paolo and Rosetta at the time when they made their pledge of love. Father Donnet was at last informed of their betrothal. It was to him like a flash of light. He knew now what ailed Rosetta. He knew, and he could bring the remedy.

At dawn he harnessed his mare, attached her to his old carriage and departed in the direction of Ligny.

If you are not in Ligny in three days, beware of my anger.

Such was the telegram that Paolo received one morning. He knew his stern father well enough to understand that he must obey him. Evidently the old gentleman was in a rage, and it would be imprudent to trifle with him.

"On my faith, there is nothing but to resign myself," he murmured. "I must return to my country."

The next day he was in Ligny.

"At last you are here!" exclaimed Father Laurient upon his arrival. "But not of your own will. The gentlemen of the faculty may be remarkable for some things, but they seem to have little respect for paternal authority. But we will speak no more of that. Now that you are here you will allow me to present you as a future physician at Ligny, thus guaranteeing your ability."

"But, dad, I have my diploma."

"Our friends would laugh at that or at two diplomas. It is for me to assure them of your ability and for you to verify it. Well, let us learn what they think of you. You shall make with me your first round of visits."

A moment after father and son were seated side by side in a carriage which was being rapidly borne along by the vigorous horses attached to it.

Laurient smoked a cigar with an air of satisfaction. Paolo, pleased within his heart at seeing his country again, turned about to look it over.

Suddenly the carriage turned sharply into an avenue flanked by poplar trees—the avenue that Paolo had followed with Rosetta under the starlit sky. It was the road to Revigny. Yonder in the distance was to be perceived the village, with the pretty houses rising from the river's bank. At sight of it a hundred tender memories awoke in the heart of the young man, and Rosetta's charming face as he had seen it last came between him and the landscape.

The carriage turned into the drive, drew up before the fifth house, and Father Laurient, checking the horses, descended to the earth.

"Your first patient is here," he said simply.

Then he pushed the cottage door open and entered. Paolo followed him into a large room upon the lower floor. A cry burst from the young man. Upon an iron bedstead, curtained with lace, Rosetta lay in a half slumber. There was an indescribable expression of sadness upon her sweet face. Beside her sat her white haired parents.

Father Laurient advanced to the bed, laying his rough, toil worn hand upon the girl's forehead.

"Rosetta, my child, arouse yourself."

The girl trembled, passed her hand over her brow as if to banish some importunate dream, and then as her dim eyes opened was stupefied to see the good face and gray whiskers of Father Laurient and to hear the worthy man say:

"I have come, Rosetta, to give your parents hope. They have consulted several physicians who comprehend nothing of what ails you. I therefore have taken the liberty of sending to Paris for a doctor, a young man of whom much good is said and whom I guarantee."

He was not able to say more just then—the words died in his throat—but, thrusting forward his son, he cried:

"Come, doctor, take her again—cure her!"

Rosetta lifted her azure eyes to the doctor, recognizing him instantly.

"You, Paolo! My Paolo! Is it you? And you have returned to me? Oh, if I could only live! You will stay near me? Oh, my Paolo, my delight! You are a doctor and will save me! In your care I shall be saved!"

The poor child was feverishly happy. Bright color showed upon her cheeks. An enchanting smile came to the trembling lips. In that moment no man who had loved her could resist her.

"Yes," said Paolo, covering her hand with kisses, "you shall be saved. I am the cause of your illness, and I will be your cure. Thank God I have arrived in time!"

Six months afterward Paolo Laurient and Rosetta Donnet were united in marriage at Revigny. The operatives of Ligny gave a great ovation to the forge master's son and his bride, so fair under her long veil. Then Father Laurient said to the old Donnets, pointing to the happy young couple:

"You recollect, Donnet, the day you came to the office to speak of the sick girl, of your Rosetta? You remember I promised you I would accomplish all?"

"Yes," responded the vine dresser, "I recollect also the old proverb, 'The word of a blacksmith is worth the oath of a king.'"

"Exactly so," said Laurient, straightening himself.

Extending toward the young couple the large hand of an honest man, he repeated:

"Exactly so, 'The word of a blacksmith is worth the oath of a king.'"

REALITY VS. SHAM! = = PRACTICE VS. THEORY!

Quacks live at the expense of the public and serious practioners. Frauds flourish at the cost of thoughtless and faithful rivals. Trash takes a share of the tribute that belongs of right to worthy stuffs. Theory without practice is ditched in losses. Visions create ideas, but are misleading when applied to materials and prices. There is a lot of the best sociology in honest and enterprising retailing. Neither day dreams nor science are the ends of this business. We are busy and earnest with all the power of capital, brains and distribution at our command in bringing you the best Furniture we can get at the least possible prices.
